About GIWA

The Grain Industry Association of Western Australia (GIWA) Inc, formed in 2008, is a value chain focused, not-for-profit, member based industry association, aiming to represent the interests of all individuals and businesses involved in the Western Australian grain supply chain. GIWA's purpose is to facilitate an effective and efficient Western Australian grain industry through:

- Leadership and industry self-regulation
- Facilitating communication and information exchange
- Providing solutions for grain supply chain issues

GIWA has seven Councils; GIWA Careers in Grain Council (formerly AGI Council), GIWA Barley Council, GIWA Oat Council, GIWA Oilseeds Council, GIWA Pulse Council, GIWA Trade Council and GIWA Wheat Council.

Why join?

A GIWA Membership will keep you informed and enable you to become more involved in the WA grains industry. GIWA continues to represent the full range of interests of those working within the WA supply chain. Some key benefits of GIWA Membership include:

- Access to monthly WA Crop Reports and relevant industry information
- Invitations to industry related government and trade meetings
- Invitations to GIWA organised events and networking opportunities
- Ability to contribute to the development of the WA grains industry through participation in GIWA Council activities and work groups
- Stay up-to-date on WA grain standards
