

GIWA Barley Spring Fieldwalk 2019

The GIWA Barley Council invites you to join this overnight (36 hours) fieldwalk at own cost in the central Kwinana port zone of Western Australia to visit barley trial sites and return to Perth via Pilot Malting Australia's technical malting facility at Edith Cowan University.

Join this fieldwalk with local and international participants in the Australian Barley Technical Symposium 9th-12th Sept, hold informal discussions on all things barley in the paddock or pub (export and domestic, malting, brewing and feed trends for barley, barley market development, MRLs and chemical usage, barley classification and rationalisation, barley receival standards, barley agronomy and extension).

Departure is from Perth at 9.00am on Sunday 8th September, returning to Perth by 3pm Monday 9th September. Own transport preferred but car share can be arranged subject to numbers. Please RSVP with requirements to Ms Rachel Nash, GIWA Marketing and Communications Manager on rnash@giwa.org.au or +61 8 6262 2128.
