GIWA FORUM

THE NEW WHEATBELT

How costs, capital, climate and consolidation are changing grain farming in WA

As input costs rise, capital requirements shift, climate variability intensifies and farm consolidation reshapes the landscape, WA's grain industry is entering a new era. Join us for an afternoon of insight, discussion and networking as we unpack what these forces mean for the future of grain farming in Western Australia with keynote speakers and a panel session.

Jessica Lingard
Meteorologist
Bureau of Meteorology

Dennis Voznesenski
Agricultural Economist
Commonwealth Bank

Graeme McConnell
Director
Planfarm

John Woods
Chair
Lawson Grains

Wednesday 7 October 2026

5-8PM | BEAUMONDE ON THE POINT, EAST PERTH

IN-PERSON AND VIRTUAL ATTENDANCE AVAILABLE
REGISTRATIONS ESSENTIAL

SUPPORTED BY

CBH GROUP

GIWA
Grain Industry Association of Western Australia

ENQUIRIES:
E: ADMIN@GIWA.ORG.AU
T: (08) 6262 2128

TO REGISTER: WWW.GIWA.ORG.AU/EVENTS